SHE VOTES

BE PREPARED TO VOTE!

YOUR VOICE. YOUR VOTE. OUR RESPONSIBILITY.

Know What to Bring!

WHAT YOU NEED TO BRING TO VOTE

Requirements vary by state, but most voters will need to show an acceptable form of ID.
Check your state's rules on our Social Action page for details.

ACCEPTABLE FORMS OF ID
(Varies by State, but commonly accepted)

- Driver's license (current or expired within the state limit)
- State-issued identification card
- U.S. passport
- U.S. military ID
- Student ID (from an approved college or university)
- Tribal ID (in states that accept it)
- Employee ID (in some states)

The name on your ID should match your voter registration, if required in your state.

EXAMPLES OF ACCEPTABLE ID

Driver's License (state-issued)

State ID Card

U.S. Passport

Military ID

Student ID (approved college/university)

Tribal ID (in states that accept it)

OTHER IMPORTANT REMINDERS

BE REGISTERED TO VOTE
Check your registration status on our Social Action page.

KNOW YOUR POLLING PLACE
Find your location and hours on our Social Action page.

CHECK YOUR STATE'S ID RULES
State requirements vary. Some states require an ID, while others allow affidavits or other options. Check the details on our Social Action page.

IF YOU DON'T HAVE AN ACCEPTABLE ID

Some states offer a free voter ID. Check your state's requirements on our Social Action page.

Many states allow a provisional ballot if you don't have ID. Check the details on our Social Action page.

Contact your local election office for specific requirements in your area. Find helpful resources on our Social Action page.

Be Informed. Be Prepared. Be Empowered.

SCAN TO LEARN MORE

www.shenergize.com/socialaction

OUR VOICE. OUR VOTE. OUR RESPONSIBILITY.